

Luis Arteaga, Executive Director, Latino Issues Forum

The Latino Issues Forum is a public policy forum dedicated to improving the lives of Latinos by producing high quality research, conducting community education forums, building coalitions, serving as a resource to media; and hard hitting advocacy. Mr. Arteaga is a public policy specialist in housing, urban development, transportation and health issues. He formerly worked with the Los Angeles County Department of Health Services.